

Promotes Good Health...

Measuring Acid/Alkaline Balance:

Scientists can determine if a liquid is alkaline or acidic by simply testing the "pH" of that liquid. The pH scale range is from 0-14 with 7 being "neutral." Readings below 7 are acidic and readings above 7 are alkaline. A one whole number increase on the pH scale represents that a liquid is 10 times more alkaline.

For example, a increase from 7.0 (neutral) to 9.5 means a liquid is 500 times more alkaline to your body!

Is Your Body Acidic?

Some of the symptoms associated with acidic conditions in the human body include:

- Weight loss problems
- Constipation
- Insomnia
- Colds and flu
- Water retention
- Ulcers
- Arthritis
- Acid reflex
- Migraine headaches
- Cancer

Many health experts agree that an overly acidic body can greatly diminish the effectiveness of the immune system.

Help to lower your body's acidity level.

DRINK pPerformance™ with it's oxygen activation qualities.

Causes of High Acidity Levels

Acidic conditions in the human body are caused by a number of factors:

- Junk food
- Alcohol
- Soda
- Environmental Toxins
- Coffee
- Stress
- Refined sugar

We need to lower our acidity levels!

pPerformance™ is a high alkaline water that can help you do just that!*

DRINK pHerformance™!

High pH 9.5

pHerformance™ will help maintain the natural pH level, that your body needs.

Most of what we consume in today's world is acidic (low in pH). Low pH levels, equals low oxygen levels (anaerobic). High pH levels, equals high oxygen levels (aerobic).

To help maintain your body's healthy 7.2 pH level, drink 9.5 pHerformance™ water. It will help offset the affects of the low acidic foods and beverages we consume daily.

Supercharge your body and immune system!

DRINK pHerformance™!

Micro Clustered / Oxygen Activated

pHerformance™ is 100% pure Northern Wisconsin spring water that contains no stimulants, sugars or artificial ingredients. It is bottled under a patented proprietary process which enhances the water molecules to produce up to 700 times the amount of activated oxygen levels, as compared to other bottled water. This allows your body to rapidly rehydrate for optimal results.

Give yourself the edge!!

Mineral Spring Water

In the real world natural is always better! We don't start with over processed "dead water", and try and add back what we think is necessary. Our water is "high energy", bottled from one of only a few natural mineral spring aquifers in North America. So you're getting minerals in the way nature intended, in the right balance. This enhances pHerformance™ water by offering our customers the natural minerals in the form our bodies can use.

pHerformance™ is the Natural Choice!
